

We Have Plenty of Electric Power Awaiting Your Demand

You will eventually operate your entire plant with Central Station Power.

WHY NOT NOW?

If you have a good reason why you should not use our Central Station Power in your plant we would like to know the reason.

If you are not using any electric power in your plant, let our engineers show you why you should operate your entire plant from our power house.

There are many good electric power ideas that will work out to our mutual advantage.

Take up the power question now, and you will save yourself lots of trouble and money.

Enjoy Concert and "Movies."

Washington Park was thronged with a crowd estimated at 1,500 people last night to enjoy the concert by Kessnich's Band and several excellent reels of moving pictures as an added attraction. The vocal selections of Leonard Haynes, of 302 East Sixth Street, proved a feature. Music of Haynes is only thirteen years old, and has gained considerable fame as a songbird. "That's How I Need You" and "At the Devil's Ball" were rendered by him last night, and were received with applause. Professor Kessnich has engaged him to sing in Washington Square next Thursday night.

Eagles' Labor Day Picnic.

An all-day picnic will be given by Stonewall Jackson Aerie, No. 32, Fraternal Order of Eagles, next Monday, beginning at 10 o'clock, at Drewry's Mansion, on Stop 3, the Petersburg car line. An attractive program has been arranged, embracing athletics, dancing and other sports. Thirteen different events will fill in the time until 8 o'clock in the evening, when the festivities will close. Everything from a baby show to a pie-eating contest will be held. The committee, of which S. P. Kahn is chairman, promises a good time to all who attend, and will see that good order is kept. Other officials who will be on the grounds are J. A. Burton, W. T. Williams, J. E. Bass, G. R. Womack, M. E. Garrett, E. E. Schopp and J. V. Nunnally.

To Give Elks Big Time.

Preparations are being made by the Manchester Lodge of Elks to join with their Richmond brothers in giving a banquet to the convention which meets here next week a royal good time. They will be wined and dined to the fullest. Past Exalted Ruler Lynton B. Lloyd will bring some of the visiting Elks to the Southside home, and an entertainment will be given in their honor. Owners of automobiles have lent the use of their cars for sightseeing purposes, and it is understood that the Southside will be taken in by the convention on its tour.

In Police Court, Part II.

H. H. Dalton and Mrs. Maggie Kelly, charged on cross-warrants with cursing and abusing each other, were dismissed on a payment of costs by Squire Franklin yesterday morning in Police Court, Part II.

Charles Hardy, colored, was fined $2.50 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

Nancy Clanton, colored, charged with not paying her board bill, was dismissed on a payment of the debt.

Hay Ride and Watermelon Feast.

About twenty-five young people of the Southside and Swansboro enjoyed a hay ride and watermelon feast Thursday night at Forest Hill Park. The party left Branch's Church in several wagons, arriving at the park about 9:30 o'clock. A contest was staged to see who could put away the most watermelons. About forty healthy specimens of the juicy fruit were consumed with much merriment, and the diners went home groaning, but happy. Those in the party were as follows: Miss Olive and Carrie Craze, Della and Myrtle Leonard, Mary West, Mary Ross and Mary Mahoney; R. A. Hatcher, Joseph Hatcher, John West, Joseph Marshall, Bertie Ross, John Ross, Will Inman, Roland Regar and Kenneth Hatcher.

Lilly Council, Daughters of Liberty, will hold a meeting next Tuesday night in Masonic Hall to celebrate their nineteenth anniversary.

Mrs. W. C. Sale and daughter and mother, Mrs. Porter, have returned from a visit to Gloucester.

Picnic Near Church Road.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Church Road, Va., August 28.—An enjoyable picnic was recently given at Chandler's Mill Pond, about seven miles southeast of Church Road, by relatives of L. E. Coleman, a prosperous farmer and highly-respected citizen of this county. A beautiful dinner was spread under the trees, and it was greatly enjoyed by the participants.

Washington Crisps helps Children grow Sturdy and Strong

MOST people know that foods made from corn are very good for growing children. WASHINGTON CRISPS is made from one of the most nutritious elements of the choicest white corn.

Thousands of careful mothers give their children WASHINGTON CRISPS two or three times a day.

The youngsters thrive on it.

These crisp delicious flakes appeal to their delicate taste—are easily digested and soon make rich, red blood.

Look out for imitations of this great food. Many inferior breakfast foods are put up in showy boxes and offered to the public in place of WASHINGTON CRISPS. You can easily tell the big, red and white box.

Order a box to-day. Your grocer will be glad to send it.

LAWLESS FINED FOR ASSAULT ON EDITOR

Trial Justice Barron Declares Both Men Suffered Gross Insults.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., August 28.—For assaulting Editor C. R. Kelley, of the Norfolk News, a semi-weekly, Judge Joseph T. Lawless was fined $5 and costs by Police Justice Barron to-day. The fine was paid. Mr. Kelley said he was satisfied.

"I have read the article that brought about the assault," said Justice Barron, "and in arriving at a decision I have tried to use my best judgment as a police justice. I don't know of two grosser insults than those offered by the plaintiff and defendant in this case. The article in question accused Judge Lawless of being influenced in his decision in a case that was before his court, and such an article would naturally provoke any man in the world, or raise any man's blood to the boiling point. It is true that the defendant is a judge, sworn to see that the law is upheld, but he is also human, and such an article as that referred to would cause any man's blood to boil."

"The assault upon you," continued Justice Barron, turning to Mr. Kelley, "was one he thought would absolutely show his idea of such an article and the man who wrote it. You reflected on him and he on you. I believe you would have done the same thing he did if he had said the same thing about you that you said about him."

When the court opened this morning at 9 o'clock it was announced that the case of Judge Lawless would be heard at noon. At this hour the courtroom was crowded with legal and other friends of both parties involved. It is probable that there were more lawyers present than have ever been together in Norfolk at any trial.

Justice Barron stated that the article which appeared in the Norfolk News was enough to provoke any man in the world, Mr. Kelley asked him if a judge should not know a remedy and jail the writer if proper to do so.

"That is not the law," interposed Judge Lawless, before the police magistrate could reply.

"Then I am wrong," said Mr. Kelley.

As soon as the case was disposed of and the fine paid, Judge Lawless left the courtroom in company with friends and walked towards Bank Street. Mr. Kelley remained in the office of Justice Barron, where he said that the outcome was entirely satisfactory to him.

WILLIAMS DISCUSSES SANITATION IN SCHOOLS

State Health Commissioner Addresses Superintendents During Meeting at Radford.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] East Radford, Va., August 28.—The meeting of Virginia school superintendents came to a close to-night. Dr. Ennon Williams, State health commissioner, came to-day, and this afternoon talked to the educators about school sanitation and sanitation generally in country districts.

Miss Anna L. Jones, of the Lynchburg schools, originator of the county school fairs, told the superintendents of the State exhibit in Lynchburg on November 26, 27 and 28.

The Radford teachers, assisted by a bevy of Radford's prettiest girls, served refreshments after the afternoon session. A night session was held before train time, at which teachers' associations were discussed.
